EAHEA Certification for Professionals

EAHEA Professional Certification turns the experience and skills of a professional into a certificate that employers, clients and institutions can read and verify. Every job requires a core set of expertise and business skills that show the ability of a person to perform, and the certificate documents that ability after an independent review. It is open to business, IT, legal, engineering, coaching, mentoring and many other professionals in every country.

The certificate is not given at the end of a course or a training, and it is not given to everyone: it is granted only after a detailed review and evaluation of the supporting documents that prove the competencies of each applicant.

What Does EAHEA Professional Certification Give You?

A record of professional competence: Applicants for a job, a visa, a work permit, a residence permit or a professional position are often asked to document their competence in their field. Your EAHEA Professional Certificate and the Certificate Verification Document give you an independent, verifiable record of your professional competence that can make this easier. Decisions on visas, permits and employment are made only by the authorities of the country concerned or by employers and institutions, and EAHEA does not guarantee any visa, permit, job, admission or other result.

A clear credential: The certificate shows that EAHEA reviewed your professional ability and your career in detail, on the basis of your documents.

Career support included: EAHEA may redraft your resume, prepare a cover letter and an ATS-friendly resume, and forward your profile to recruiters and to EAHEA accredited institutions, without any guarantee of employment.

Proof that is easy to show and to check: The EAHEA Certified Professional Badges can be used on your website, email signature and professional profiles, as the Logo & Emblem Usage Guidelines allow, and your listing in the EAHEA Certified Members Directory lets others confirm your certification with EAHEA.

Valid for five years, simple to keep current: The certificate is valid for five years and is renewed with a simple renewal invoice. You apply online, and as a certified professional you also receive the EAHEA news alerts and the newsletter, and discounts for EAHEA sponsored events.

What Are the Professional Certification Fees?

All service fees follow the World Bank Country Income Classification, and additional discounts may apply depending on the economic situation of the country where you live or operate. For the Professional Certification fees, please visit the Service Fees page.

Validity and renewal: A Professional Certificate is valid for five (5) years from its date of issue. EAHEA sends the renewal invoice before the end of the validity period, and paying the renewal fee (see the Service Fees page) extends the certificate by another validity period. A certificate that is not renewed ends.

Payment: The price is paid at once, in full, when you apply, and the certificate is not awarded until the fee is paid. Fees are not refundable, except an amount that was paid twice or by mistake.

Important Information

The Professional Certificate is a voluntary, independent and non-governmental certificate of EAHEA. It is not an academic degree, a license to practice a profession or to teach, an authorization to work, or an official or government recognition of a qualification. Decisions on visas, permits and employment are made only by the authorities of the country concerned or by employers and institutions, and EAHEA does not guarantee any visa, permit, job, admission or other result. The conditions of the service are in the Professional Certification Regulations and the General Provisions, which are available under Documents and Forms.
